

To reflect and... act.

The difference between the poor and rich nations is not the age of the Nation.

A stylized illustration of two hands shaking in a firm grip, rendered in various shades of green. The hands are positioned diagonally across the frame, with one hand on the left and the other on the right, meeting in the center. The background is a solid dark teal color.

This can be demonstrated by countries like India and Egypt, which are more than 2000 years old and are still poor countries.

On the other hand,
Canada, Australia and New Zealand, which 150 years back were insignificant, today are developed and rich countries.

A stylized illustration of two hands shaking in a firm grip, rendered in various shades of green. The hands are positioned at the bottom of the frame, with the fingers interlocked in a handshake. The background is a dark teal color.

The difference between the poor and rich nation does not also depend on the available natural resources.

Japan has limited territory, 80% mountainous, unsuitable for agriculture or farming, but is the second in worlds economy. The country is like an immense floating factory, importing raw material from the whole world and exporting manufactured products.

Second example is Switzerland, it does not grow cocoa but produces the best chocolates in the world. In her small territory she rears animals and cultivates the land only for four month in a year, nevertheless manufactures the best milk products. A small country which is an image of security which has made it the strongest world bank.

Executives from rich countries who interact with their counterparts from poor countries show no significant intellectual differences.

The racial or colour factors also do not evince importance: migrants heavy in laziness in their country of origin are forcefully productive in rich European countries.

A stylized illustration of two hands shaking, rendered in various shades of green. The hands are positioned in the lower half of the frame, with the fingers interlocked in a firm grip. The background is a dark teal color, and the overall aesthetic is clean and modern.

What then is the difference?

The difference is the attitude of the people, moulded for many years by education and culture.

When we analyse the conduct of the people from the rich and developed countries, it is observed that a majority abide by the following principles of life:

An illustration of two hands shaking in a firm grip, symbolizing agreement or partnership. The hands are rendered in shades of green and are positioned behind the text, with the right hand on top and the left hand on the bottom.

1. Ethics, as basic principles.
2. Integrity.
3. Responsibility.
4. The respect for Laws and Regulations.
5. The respect from majority of citizens by right.
6. The love for work.
7. The effort to save and invest.
8. The will to be productive.
9. Punctuality.

In the poor countries a small minority follow these basic principles in their daily life.

We are not poor because we lack natural resources or because nature was cruel towards us.

We are poor because we lack attitude. We lack the will to follow and teach these principles of working of rich and developed societies.

WE ARE IN THIS STATE BECAUSE WE WANT TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OVER EVERYTHING AND EVERYONE.

WE ARE IN THIS STATE BECAUSE
WE SEE SOMETHING DONE WRONG AND SAY - "LET IT BE"

WE SHOULD HAVE A SPIRITED MEMORY AND ATTITUDE...

ONLY THEN WILL WE BE ABLE TO CHANGE OUR PRESENT STATE.

If you do not forward this e-mail
nothing is going to happen to you.
Your prized animal is not going to die, you wont be sacked from your job, you wont be having bad luck for seven years, nor are you going to get sick.

A stylized illustration of two hands shaking, rendered in various shades of green. The hands are positioned in the lower half of the frame, with the fingers interlocked in a firm grip. The background is a solid dark teal color.

But, if you love your

COUNTRY

Try and circulate this message so that as many people can reflect on this and CHANGE.

A stylized illustration of two hands shaking in a firm grip, rendered in shades of green. The hands are positioned diagonally across the lower half of the image, with the left hand on the bottom left and the right hand on the top right. The background is a dark teal color.

Think about it...

